

WONDER WING

Don't Wing It, Wonder Wing It!

READING ROUTINE

START WITH JOY

Choose topics they love — football, dragons, pets, jokes, or comics
Enjoyment first, fluency later.

RETHINK READING

Audiobooks, comics, recipes, and game guides all count!
If words are being explored, reading is happening.

IN IT TOGETHER

Take turns reading lines, pages, or voices.
Let it feel like play, not pressure.

SHORT & SWEET

Five minutes of fun beats thirty minutes of frustration. — leave them wanting more.
The goal is spark, not stamina.

HELPING RELUCTANT READERS

CREATE COMFORT

Grab a blanket or read on the floor.
Comfort lowers stress and builds confidence.
Cushions, snacks, and soft lights.

MODEL THE MAGIC

Let them see you reading books, magazines, anything!
Readers grow in homes that read.

GIVE THEM POWER

Let them say 'stop' or 'switch' or choose again.
choice builds trust.

CELEBRATE EFFORT

Notice effort, not perfection.
'I love how you sounded out that word!' means more than 'Good reading.'
